Dear Chief Constable,

RE: Belly Mujinga

Firstly, can I thank you and your officers for all you are doing, especially at this very difficult time during the coronavirus pandemic.

I am writing following the statement from the British Transport Police on the tragic death of Belly Mujinga, who died from Coronavirus and was allegedly spat at whilst at work at Victoria Station by a man claiming to have the virus.

As you will be aware, Belly's death has been a tragedy for her family and friends, and many Carshalton and Wallington residents have been in contact concerned at the demonstration this tragic death has of racism still being prevalent in the UK today.

In light of this, I am writing to ask if you would consider reviewing the evidence in this case so that Belly's family can get answers and justice for her death.

Thank you for your attention in this important matter.

With best wishes,
